

2019

Larsen Symposium

Thursday, April 18, 2019 | 9:00 - 11:30 a.m.

Student Services Arcade Building | Conference Room 143

THE ROBERT P. LARSEN GRANT FOR RESEARCH IN CAREER

DEVELOPMENT supports graduate student research that increases knowledge related to career development and vocational issues. These grants are awarded in memory of Bob Larsen, the first career counselor at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, to recognize his life-long commitment to and support of college student career counseling.

- 9:00-9:30 am: Opening Reception
Larsen & TCC History at Illinois
Dave Bechtel, Former Director of The Career Center

Introduction of 2018 Recipients & Announcements of 2019 Recipients
Julia Panke Makela, Larsen Grant Coordinator & Associate Director of The Career Center
- 9:30-10:15 am: Perceptions of College and Career Readiness Among Rural High School Seniors
Marci M. Rockey, Department of Education Policy, Organization, and Leadership
- 10:15-10:30 am: Break
- 10:30-11:15 am: Interest in Context: Using Work Tasks to Measure Occupational Interests
Alexis Hanna & Kevin Hoff, Department of Psychology
- 11:15-11:30 am: Closing Remarks
Jenny Neef, Director of The Career Center

Coffee, bagels, and pastries will be provided.

RSVPs appreciated; please email Julia Makela at jpmakela@illinois.edu