Pair and Share Pathways to Results (PTR) Workshop Held Nov. 18 Focused on “Partnerships for Performance”

OCCRL held its first Pathways to Results (PTR) Pair and Share workshop on November 18, 2014 at Harper College in Palatine, IL. The interactive workshop focused on engaging and developing partnerships. Workshop participants from community colleges, EFE’s, and the ICCB discussed developing partnerships, issues with partnerships, and the critical role strong partnerships play in improving programs of study. The workshop also introduced the Alliance for Quality Career Pathways (AQCP) outcome metrics to help attendees think about strengthening career pathways overall.

Cross-Site Meeting on Outcomes and Equity Assessment

For teams currently implementing PTR, a cross-site meeting on Outcomes and Equity Assessment will be held on Tuesday, December 9, 2014 from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. at the Illini Center on 200 S. Wacker Drive, Chicago, IL 60606. This interactive meeting invites PTR teams to engage in the Outcomes and Equity Assessment process, including aligning their PTR projects with the Alliance for Quality Pathway (AQCP) participant metrics. Teams should bring data to maximize active learning activities. To register for this meeting, email Edmund Graham at egraha3@illinois.edu with the number of team members attending, including names, by November 21. Box lunches will be provided so please include any dietary restrictions or special meal requests.
